LIP-PITT, -Dear Sir: -It is with pleasure I acknowledge the wonderful effects of your Medicine for curing Diarrhæa or Bowel complaint, as I am satisfied it was the means, under God, of saving the life, first of my Child and then of my Brother. As my Brother was given up by two of the most eminent Physicians in this place, Drs. Richardson and Wregg, and when I consulted the latter as to the propriety of trying it on him so low, he said I might to satisfy myself that I had left nothing untried, but he did not think that Medicine would be of any use to him. But thank God he was mistaken, as we saw the salutary effects in 24 hours, and in ten days he was able to be out of bed. I remain yours, very truly and gratefully.

The President Elect.

The Zion's Herald of last week contains a letter from an old clergyman who happened to be at Concord on a visit when the election took place for President of the United States. After speaking of things in that pleasant village, he says:

You may walk two miles on Main street within the village and still it grows. A vote was taken on the acceptance of a city charter, and lost by about sixty votes. The town you are aware is the resistruction. As a scholar, disciplinarian and teacher, few are his equals, and fewer still his superiors. Those weapons which as silent fall As snow-flakes fall upon the sod, But execute the will of man As lightning does the will of God.

The General was in town all day. A subscription was made for the purchase of a quantity of the "nitrous grain" for a demonstration. After sunset the lightning came from the four quarters, in winged haste, to announce the result. That the candidates should be anxious somewhat, would be natural,may patronize the institution, the advantages of systematic. In a litle room back of his office, the man upon whom the hearts of many were set quietly received the dispatches as they came from the wires. Thousands filled the streets, hearts beat nervously, and hats cut circles in the air. So constantly came the announcement, "Majority Pierce," that the apprehension was that the lightning was democratic. But bravely he bore all until it was announced-" Boston gone for Pierce," then was he quite overcome, so An excellent Piano is furnished for the use of Pupils in unexpected the result.
